

Clearance & Exemption CoP - Update

Dave Owen

9th November 2005

What's He Going to Say ?

- Background
- Contents
- Current Status
- Future Plans

Background (1)

- No practical clearance protocol prior to 2003
- Number of clearance related events
- Concern by stakeholders
- A very difficult issue !

Background (2)

- 2001 - CEWG starts to consider issue
- November 2001 - Workshop at Berkeley
- May 2003 - Interim Issue published
- July 2005 - Issue 1 published
- Here we are !

Current Status (1)

- Published as Issue 1
- First full issue
- Believe has some acceptance
- Being used ‘in anger’

Contents (1)

- A hefty tome - 214 pages.....
- Regulatory Background
- Interactions with other legislation
- Industry practices not specified by legislation
- Management Principles and Arrangements

Contents (2)

- Clearance and sentencing processes
- Statistical basis for sentencing
- Measurement practices
- References
- Bibliography

Future Plans (1)

- Promulgation - website
- Practical implementation - good practice
- Development of Legislation section - e.g. IRR99
- IRPCG system development
- Impact of national & international developments

Future Plans (2)

- Seek greater alignment with other initiatives
- You suggest...we listen

Summary

- A good document has been produced
- The beginning of the end.....
- Further development work foreseen
- We need your help and support